

The PMP Prep class helped me understand the PMI way and how to approach the questions. I'm not sure I would have passed the first time without understanding that, and I don't think I would have gotten it on my own unless I would have gotten lucky in ordering the "right" study materials and know to read them multiple times.